Senate

Chamber Action

Routine Proceedings, pages 3–15

Bills Introduced: Four resolutions were submitted today, S. Res. 1–4. Pages 11–12

Measures Passed:

Joint session: Senate took from desk and agreed to H. Con. Res. 1, providing for a joint session of the Congress at 1:00 p.m. on January 15 to receive the President's message on the State of the Union. Page 15

Budget Message and Economic Report: Senate took from desk, passed without amendment, and cleared for the White House H.J. Res. 1, extending the time within which the President may transmit his Budget Message and Economic Report to the Congress. Page 14

Procedural Resolutions Adopted: Senate adopted the following three procedural resolutions:

Notification of President of quorum assembled: S. Res. 1, providing for the appointment of two Senators (Mansfield and Scott) to advise the President that a quorum of the Senate is present and ready to receive any message. (Subsequently, these Senators reported that the President informed them that he proposed to report to the Congress on the State of the Union at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, January 15). Page 11

Notification of House of quorum assembled: S. Res. 2, advising the House that a quorum of the Senate is present and ready to transact business; and Page 11

Hour of meeting: S. Res. 3, setting 12 o'clock meridian as the hour of daily meeting of the Senate unless otherwise ordered. Page 11

Cloture Rule: S. Res. 4, to amend Senate rule XXII so as to reduce from two-thirds to three-fifths the number of Senators present and voting required to limit debate, was submitted, and went over under the rule. Senate is expected to consider this matter further on Friday, January 17. Page 12

Swearing in of Newly Elected Senators: The following 33 Senators, elected in November 1974 for the term expiring in 1981, were sworn in: Senators Allen, Bayh, Bellmon, Bumpers, Church, Cranston, Culver, Dole, Eagleton, Ford, Garn, Glenn, Goldwater, Gravel, Gary W. Hart, Hollings, Inouye, Javits, Laxalt, Leahy, Long, Magnuson, Mathias, McGovern, Morgan, Nelson, Packwood, Ribicoff, Schweiker, Stevenson, Stone, Talmadge, and Young. Pages 4–8

Oklahoma Contest: By unanimous consent, a petition of contest concerning the Oklahoma senatorial election was referred to Committee on Rules and Administration. Page 8

New Hampshire Contest: Senate considered the matter of the New Hampshire senatorial election contest between Louis C. Wyman and John A. Durkin. Pending at adjournment was Griffin motion that Mr. Wyman be seated without prejudice, in the nature of a substitute for Mansfield motion to refer this matter to Committee on Rules and Administration for its recommendation thereon.

By unanimous consent it was agreed that on Wednesday, January 15, following the joint session of the Congress, there will be 40 minutes of debate on this matter, such time to be equally divided. Page 9–11, 13

Presidential Message: On Tuesday, December 31, during adjournment of the Senate, a message was received from the President transmitting the sixth annual report on the National Housing Goal—referred to Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs.

Rail Reorganization: By a yea-and-nay vote of 270 yeas to 137 nays with 1 voting "present", the House passed H.R. 2051, to amend the Regional Rail Organization Act of 1973 to increase the financial assistance available under section 213 and section 215.

Agreed to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute with the following amendments:

A clarifying amendment; and

An amendment that authorizes the Rail Services Planning Office to hold public hearings on any supplement to the preliminary system plan.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to strike out language that authorizes $197 million in additional railroad assistance; and

An amendment that sought to insert language requiring congressional approval of any final system plan. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment that sought to allow States to use their allocated funds for the acquisition of rail lines as well as for subsidizing continued ConRail service (rejected by a division vote of 7 ayes to 19 noes); and

An amendment that sought to place a moratorium on the abandonment of rail lines until December 31, 1976 (rejected by a division vote of 14 ayes to 35 noes).

The following amendments were considered, but subsequently withdrawn:

An amendment that sought to include the repair of the Poughkeepsie rail bridge as one of the terms and conditions of any agreements made with the Penn Central Railroad; and

An amendment that sought to require approval of the Secretary of Transportation of any proposed abandonment of a rail right-of-way.

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and S. 281, a similar Senate-passed bill was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed.

H. Res. 173, the rule under which the bill was considered, was agreed to by a voice vote.

Pages 3584–3606

Select Committee on Intelligence: By a yea-and-nay vote of 286 yeas to 120 nays, the House agreed to H. Res. 138, establishing a Select Committee on Intelligence.

Agreed to:

The committee amendments;

An amendment that requires the committee to establish a security system to prevent the disclosure of any CIA-related information that would hamper that agency's operations in foreign countries; and

An amendment that limits committee expenditures to $750,000.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to provide for equal representation of majority and minority Members on the committee (rejected by a recorded vote of 141 ayes to 265 noes); and

An amendment that sought to change the committee's final reporting date from January 31, 1976 to September 1, 1975.

Suface Mining: House concluded all general debate and began reading for amendment on H.R. 25, to provide for the cooperation between the Secretary of the Interior and States with respect to the regulation of surface coal mining operations, and the acquisition and reclamation of abandoned mines. Proceedings under the 5-minute rule will continue on Monday, March 17.

Took the following action on the committee amendment in the Committee of the Whole:

Agreed To:

An amendment that adds language to the sections on congressional findings which states that a substantial number of acres of land in the United States are disturbed by surface mining and the impacts from these unreclaimed lands impose social and economic costs on nearby residents; and

An amendment that requires the Director of the Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement to report directly to the Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Land and Water Resources and reduces the salary of the Director from Level V of the Executive Schedule to level IV (agreed to by a recorded vote of 145 ayes to 100 noes).

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to underline Federal responsibility for the regulation of coal surface mining and prevent the adverse social, economic, and environmental effects of such mining operations;

An amendment that sought to transfer the regulatory authority jurisdiction from the Department of the Interior to the Environmental Protection Agency (rejected by a division vote of 20 ayes to 36 noes); and

An amendment that sought to transfer the responsibility of administering the bill from the Department of the Interior to the Environmental Protection Agency in consultation with the Department of the Interior (rejected by a recorded vote of 67 ayes to 174 noes).

H. Res. 304, the rule under which the bill was considered, was agreed to earlier by a yea-and-nay vote of 274 ayes to 36 noes with 1 voting "present."

Proceedings under the 5-minute rule will continue on Tuesday, March 18.

Took the following action on the committee amendment in the Committee of the Whole:

Agreed To:

An amendment that prohibits the Director from using persons charged with inspecting coal mines under the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969, unless such persons are not needed for inspections under that act;

An amendment that makes the Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement an independent Federal regulatory agency subject to conflict of interest laws and prohibiting its employees or any other Federal employee performing any function or duty under this act from having a direct or indirect financial interest in underground or surface coal mining operations;

Three amendments en bloc that insure that the protection of agricultural productivity is considered with environmental protection.

An amendment that changes from five to four the number of fulltime permanent faculty members required for a college or university to have an eligible school of mines so that it may qualify for State allotments;

An amendment that authorizes the Secretary to make expenditures in any area experiencing a rapid development of its "energy" resources which he has determined do not have adequate housing, in lieu of "coal" resources;

An amendment that changes the reclamation fee on lignite coal from 10 to 5 percent of the value of the coal or 35 cents a ton, whichever is less;

An amendment that allows any reclamation fees paid to the States be deducted from any fees owed to the Federal Government;

An amendment that requires the Secretary to consider the recommendations of the Governor of a State before expending funds from the Abandoned Coal Mine Reclamation Fund to that State;

An amendment that adds coal gasification companies to the requirement that operations begin within 3 years after receiving a permit;

Two technical amendments;

An amendment that requires a detailed description of a proposed revegetation plan and insures the plan will be completed in the proposed timetable for reclamation (agreed to by a division vote of 38 ayes to 14 noes);

An amendment that requires the restoring recharge capacity of the mined area to premining condition and replacing water supply if it is contaminated by surface mining; and

An amendment that bans all surface mining in alluvial valley floors in the Western States (agreed to by a division vote of 26 ayes to 16 noes).

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to delete title III (State mining and mineral resources and research institute) (rejected by a division vote of 18 ayes to 52 noes);

An amendment that sought to change the reclamation fee from 35 to 50 cents per ton produced by surface coal mining (rejected by a division vote of 19 ayes to 44 noes);

A substitute amendment to the previous amendment that sought to change the reclamation fee from 50 to 10 cents per ton produced by surface coal mining;

An amendment that sought to abolish the proposed reclamation fee and to finance the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund with $200 million per year from Outer Continental Shelf leasing revenues (rejected by a recorded vote of 140 ayes to 250 noes);

A preferential motion that the committee rise and report the bill to the House with the enacting clause stricken;

An amendment that prohibits the issuance of any permits for surface coal mining on slopes of 20 degrees or more (rejected by a recorded vote of 136 ayes to 262 noes); and

An amendment that sought to exempt member States of the Interstate Mining Compact from the provisions of the bill. Pages 6785–6833

Page 7648

Agriculture-Consumer Protection Act: By a yea-and-nay vote of 259 yeas to 162 nays, the House passed H.R.

4296, to adjust target prices, loan and purchase levels on the 1975 crops of upland cotton, corn, wheat, and soybeans, and to provide price support for milk at 85 percent of parity with quarterly adjustments for the period ending March 31, 1976.

By a yea-and-nay vote of 118 yeas to 298 nays, rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Agriculture with instructions to report it back to the House with an amendment striking the provisions that make available loans and purchases for the 1975 crop of soybeans.

Agreed to the committee amendment.

Agreed to an amendment that lowers the milk support rate to the present level of 80 percent, but retains the provision for quarterly cost-of-living adjustments (agreed to by a recorded vote of 222 ayes to 202 noes, with 1 voting "present").

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to strike the soybean support provisions from the bill;

An amendment that sought to provide that the total amount of a commodity produced be used to calculate target-price payments rather than only the amount produced under a farmer's allotment;

An amendment that sought to establish a price-support program for fruit nuts. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment to the amendment that lowers the milk support rate to 80 percent that sought to strike the entire section on dairy price supports; and

An amendment that sought to raise the milk support rate to not less than 82 percent beginning with the third quarter of 1975 (rejected by a recorded vote of 206 ayes to 211 noes with 1 voting "present").

Points of order were sustained against:

An amendment that sought to prohibit the Secretaries of Agriculture and Commerce from providing for prior approval of or establishing other conditions for the export sales of the commodities covered by the bill;

An amendment that sought to prohibit acreage allotments, marketing quotas, or price supports for rice effective with the 1975 crop;

An amendment that sought to add a new section to prohibit any price supports for rice effective with the 1975 crop; and

An amendment that sought to impose duties for dairy products imported from the European community.

Agreed to amend the title of the bill.

Pages 7648–7676

Emergency Middle-Income Housing Act: House completed all general debate and began reading for amendment H.R. 4485, to provide for greater homeownership opportunities for middle-income families and to encourage more efficient use of land and energy resources; but came to no resolution thereon. Proceedings under the 5-minute rule will continue tomorrow.

H. Res. 337, the rule under which the bill is being considered, was agreed to earlier by a voice vote. Previously, by a recorded vote of 242 ayes to 142 noes, ordered the previous question on the rule. Two points of order against the resolution were overruled.

Pages 7676–7693

Adjournment: Adjourned at 7 p.m.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to restrict to 30 days the period during which authorized funds could be used for military operations in conjunction with an evacuation effort (rejected by a recorded vote of 196 ayes to 208 noes with 1 voting "present"). Previously, the amendment had been agreed to by a division vote of 60 ayes to 48 noes;

An amendment, as amended, that sought to channel the funds authorized for humanitarian aid through the United Nations and private charities as far as that might be feasible (rejected by a recorded vote of 200 ayes to 200 noes);

An amendment that sought to direct the Secretary of State and the Secretary of HEW to submit within 72 hours a report to Congress on the cost of care of Vietnamese refugees after they arrive in the United States (rejected by a division vote of 22 ayes to 117 noes). A point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment to the previous amendment that sought to extend the time for filing the report to 30 days;

A motion that the Committee rise (rejected by a recorded vote of 65 ayes to 334 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike out language that provides a waiver of prohibition now in five Public Laws against use of armed forces in Indochina (rejected by a recorded vote of 151 ayes to 262 noes with 1 voting "present");

An amendment that sought to insert new language for section 4 (rejected by a division vote of 51 ayes to 143 noes). A point of order was overruled against the amendment;

An amendment to an amendment that sought to establish a 10-day time limit to accomplish the evacuation (rejected by a recorded vote of 97 ayes to 311 noes with 2 voting "present");

An amendment to an amendment that sought to strike out language that provided for the use of armed forces in the evacuation (rejected by a division vote of 47 ayes to 157 noes);

A substitute amendment to the committee bill that sought to insert the provisions of the Edgar substitute, as amended (rejected by a recorded vote of 147 ayes to 266 noes with 1 voting "present"). A point of order was overruled against the amendment;

An amendment that sought to prevent the evacuation of foreign nationals to the United States without Congress' consent. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment that sought to add language providing for Congress to call upon the United Nations to identify suitable non-Communist countries in which the refugees could be resettled;

An amendment that sought to expand the definition of "American citizen";

An amendment that sought to strike "notwithstanding any other provision of law" in the section authorizing $150 million for humanitarian assistance and evacuation programs (rejected by a division vote of 65 ayes to 156 noes). Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment that sought to double the funds authorized to $300 million;

An amendment that sought to require the Secretary of State to initiate talks with the Provisional Revolutionary Government for a ceasefire. Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment that sought to provide for expiration of the act within 15 days or whenever the President and the Secretary of State certify the evacuation has been accomplished;

An amendment that sought to limit assistance to areas of South Vietnam not controlled by the Communists (rejected by a recorded vote of 125 ayes to 290 noes with 1 voting "present");

An amendment that sought to provide for administration of the relief funds by international relief organizations;

An amendment specifying that U.S. military forces used for the purposes of this Act should be volunteers; and

A perfecting amendment.

Points of order were sustained against:

An amendment to the rejected amendment to impose a 30-day limit on military support of an evacuation effort that sought to include military operations in Cambodia and North Vietnam within the time limitation;

An amendment that sought to have the United States provide funds for the expenses of the refugees for a 5-year period;

An amendment that sought to strike a section that includes among persons to be evacuated foreign nationals whose lives are directly threatened;

An amendment that sought to direct that the assistance funds be administered by international relief organizations; and

An amendment that sought to provide for the evacuation of any gold or other valuable materials owned by the United States.

In actions taken earlier a point of order was sustained against a substitute to the committee bill offered by Representative Edgar as amended by a substitute offered by Representative Eckhardt (Eckhardt substitute was agreed to by a recorded vote of 272 ayes to 146 noes).

Took the following actions on the Edgar substitute:

Agreed To:

An amendment that included as eligible refugees, South Vietnamese who would be in danger of reprisals because of their past affiliations (agreed to by a division vote of 43 ayes to 37 noes);

An amendment that struck out the United Nations as an agency to dispense aid and assistance to refugees;

A technical amendment;

An amendment that forbids funds to aid the Democratic Republic of Vietnam or the Provisional Revolutionary Government (agreed to by a recorded vote of 340 ayes to 70 noes);

An amendment that restored language erroneously stricken by previous amendment; and

A conforming amendment (agreed to by a division vote of 89 ayes to 29 noes).

Took the following actions on the Eckhardt substitute:

Agreed To:

An amendment that calls on the President to use all appropriate diplomatic means to obtain an updated accounting of Americans listed as missing in action in Southeast Asia and the return of the remains of known American dead;

An amendment that forbids funds to aid the Democratic Republic of Vietnam or the Provisional Revolutionary Government;

An amendment that adds language pointing out the flagrant violations of the Paris Peace Agreement by the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong now engaged in military aggression (agreed to by a recorded vote of 345 ayes to 68 noes with 6 voting "present").

Previously, points of order were sustained against two similar amendments.

Rejected:

An amendment that limits funds available for use of armed forces to 30 days (rejected by a division vote of 47 ayes to 107 noes). A point of order against the amendment was overruled;

An amendment that sought to add an additional $150 million for military aid to South Vietnam (rejected by a recorded vote of 22 ayes to 394 noes). A point of order was overruled against the amendment.

An amendment that sought to strike out language that waives prohibitions now in five public laws against use of U.S. armed forces in Indochina;

An amendment that sought to strike out language including as persons to be evacuated, foreign nationals to whose lives a direct and imminent threat exists;

An amendment that sought to strike out the exception and authorization for the President to determine the terms and conditions of the evacuation program; and

A motion to strike the enacting clause.

During consideration of the Eckhardt substitute, points of order were sustained against:

An amendment relating to the ownership of gold and the effective date of the bill; and

An amendment that sought to prohibit use of the authorized funds for transporting refugees to areas of high unemployment in the United States.

The Clerk was authorized to correct section numbers, punctuation and conforming changes in the engrossment of the bill. Pages 11489–11561

Three amendments en bloc that: Added language requiring that members of the National Market Board not all be from the same geographical area of the United States; deleted a paragraph relating to the right of any person to seek judicial review of the Commission's authority to select members of the Board; and deleted language giving the Board access to any documents in the possession of the Commission; and

An amendment that permits the Securities and Exchange Commission to keep its suits and civil actions separate from other civil actions with common questions.

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and S. 249, a similar Senate-passed bill, was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed. Agreed to amend the title of the Senate bill.

The House then insisted on its amendments and asked a conference with the Senate. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Staggers, Moss, Van Deerlin, Stuckey, Eckhardt, McCollister, and Broyhill.

Rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report it back to the House with an amendment that would provide for a 7-year extension of the present law.

Agreed To:

An amendment that inserts "citizens" in lieu of "persons" in language outlining conditions necessary to trigger coverage under the Voting Rights Act (agreed to by a recorded vote of 311 ayes to 103 noes);

An amendment that requires States to provide only oral instructions and assistance to minority groups whose language is oral or unwritten;

An amendment that allows States and political subdivisions to submit their bailout pleas to a local Federal court rather than only to the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia;

An amendment that prohibits a person from voting more than once in a Federal election;

A committee amendment; and

An amendment of a technical nature.

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to limit the expansion of coverage under the Voting Rights Act to States which currently maintain "tests or devices" rather than those which maintained those tests or devices as of November 1, 1972 (rejected by a division vote of 23 ayes to 30 noes);

An amendment that sought to exclude from the definition of "language minority group" those persons of ethnic origin whose dominant language is English (rejected by a recorded vote of 122 ayes to 292 noes);

An amendment that sought to extend the definition of "language minority group" to all persons whose principal language is one other than English (rejected by a recorded vote of 156 ayes to 253 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike title III, which expands coverage of the Voting Rights Act to language minorities;

An amendment that sought to insert a new section to allow States or political subdivisions to file an action for declaratory judgment in an appropriate U.S. District Court rather than only in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia (rejected by a division vote of 29 ayes to 68 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike title III, which prohibits the use of English-only registration and election materials in certain jurisdictions;

An amendment that sought to provide for reimbursement by the Federal Government of the costs of providing non-English registration and voting materials (rejected by a division vote of 35 ayes to 53 noes);

An amendment that sought to compel the disclosure of data on race, color, and national origin in census surveys;

An amendment that sought to extend the definition of "language minority group" to cover all whose mother tongue is other than English (rejected by a division vote of 36 ayes to 73 noes); and

An amendment that sought to strike the provisions authorizing "an aggrieved person" to bring suit to implement the special remedy provisions of the bill (rejected by a division vote of 41 ayes to 117 noes). Pages 16880–16917

Energy Conservation and Conversion Act: The House continued consideration under the 5-minute rule of H.R. 6860, to provide a comprehensive national energy conservation and conversion program—but came to no resolution thereon. Further consideration will continue on Tuesday, June 17. When the Committee of the Whole rose an amendment was pending that seeks to strike Title IV—Energy Conservation and Conversion Trust Fund.

Took the following action in the Committee of the Whole:

Agreed To:

An amendment that provides a tax credit of 25 percent of cost for persons who purchase a qualified electric highway vehicle costing less than $3,000 (agreed to by a division vote of 73 ayes to 31 noes);

An amendment that increases the individual tax credit for installation of residential solar heating equipment to 25 percent of the first $8,000 of cost in lieu of a 40 percent credit for the first $1,000 and 20 percent of the next $1,000 (agreed to by a recorded vote of 244 ayes to 132 noes);

An amendment that extends the residential solar energy credit in title III to equipment meeting "interim" rather than "definitive" HUD standards;

An amendment that clarifies the term "solar energy equipment" by stipulating that a home need not have a separate unit but can be connected to one shared by several houses;

A committee amendment to title IV; and

An amendment that clarifies the present law which requires that any duties on oil collected in Puerto Rico be returned to that government's treasury;

Rejected:

An amendment that sought to provide a tax credit of $200 for purchasers of cars produced during the remainder of 1975 and in 1976 which obtain in excess of 18 mpg (rejected by a division vote of 10 ayes to 86 noes);

An amendment that sought to provide a 40 percent tax credit of up to $200 for installation of wood-fueled residential heating equipment (rejected by a division vote of 9 ayes to 38 noes);

An amendment that sought to increase the home insulation tax credit for elderly and low-income persons from 30 percent to 90 percent;

An amendment that sought to strike all the provisions for tax incentives for energy-related improvements in buildings;

An amendment that sought to authorize use of the trust fund to finance capital expenditures for mass transit programs;

An amendment that sought to reduce the funds available for the energy trust fund by the cost in revenue of the tax incentives provided in the bill (rejected by a recorded vote of 169 ayes to 210 noes); and

An amendment that sought to require that at least 25 percent of trust fund moneys be expended for mass transit and commuter projects (rejected by a recorded vote of 117 ayes to 240 noes).

Points of order were sustained against:

An amendment that sought to require that all automobiles purchased by the Federal Government in 1977 and later years meet a fuel efficiency standard of at least 17 mpg; and

An amendment that sought to add a new section to repeal the percentage depletion on oil and gas royalty income. Pages 18797–18829

H.R. 8122, making appropriations for public works for fiscal year 1976 (H. Rept. 94–319). Page 20009

Standard Reference Data Act Authorization: House agreed to the amendment of the Senate to H.R. 37, to authorize appropriations to carry out the Standard Reference Data Act; thus clearing the measure. Page 19916

Late Report: Committee on Appropriations received permission to file a report by midnight tonight on H.R. 8122, making appropriations for public works for fiscal year 1976. Page 19917

ERDA Authorization: By a yea-and-nay vote of 317 yeas to 9 nays, the House passed H.R. 3474, to authorize appropriations to the Energy Research and Development Administration.

Agreed to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute as amended.

Agreed To:

An amendment that restores the original name of "Oak Ridge" to the national laboratory at Oak Ridge, Tenn.;

Two amendments en bloc that cut $20.8 million authorized for the Liquid Metal Fast Breeder Reactor base program and $50.4 million for the Clinch River Breeder Reactor Demonstration Plant;

A clarifying amendment;

An amendment that increases authorizations for solar energy research and development by $64 million (agreed to by a division vote of 43 ayes to 31 noes); and

A technical amendment.

Rejected:

An amendment to the second agreed-to amendment that sought to cut authorizations for on-site construction and long leadtime procurement for the Clinch River Breeder Plant (rejected by a recorded vote of 136 ayes to 227 noes);

A preferential motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the enacting clause stricken. Previously, a point of order was overruled against the motion;

An amendment that sought to authorize an additional $40 million for end-use construction programs (rejected by a division vote of 16 ayes to 41 noes);

An amendment that sought to cut authorizations for production of nuclear energy weapons and other programs by $803.8 million (rejected by a recorded vote of 102 ayes to 246 noes);

An amendment that sought to strike the provisions authorizing the energy data bank and the authority to obtain proprietary information on energy resources and technology from other Federal agencies (rejected by a division vote of 20 ayes to 64 noes);

An amendment that sought to prohibit the energy data bank from duplicating already existing governmental data banks;

An amendment that sought to limit the authorization provided for the Liquid Metal Fast Breeder Reactor powerplant, to not exceed 50 per centum of the estimated cost;

A preferential motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the enacting clause stricken. Previously, a point of order was overruled against the motion;

An amendment that sought to strike the section that authorizes the Administrator to provide construction design services for any administration construction project proposed in authorizing legislation;

An amendment that sought to add language that would provide that moneys received by the ERDA for operating expenses would remain available until expended provided that such moneys be authorized in annual authorization acts; and

An amendment that sought to provide a conflict of interest provision that would prohibit employees of ERDA from having any financial interest in any business engaged in nuclear energy research and development.

A point of order was sustained against an amendment that sought to limit the mandatory disclosure by ERDA of information related to energy resources and technology obtained under compulsory process.
